A total of 12 paintings are displayed in rotation in the hotel's lobby; these are on loan from the German Galerie Atta worldwide and come with well-sounding names such as "Fata Morgana" or "Town in the Egyptian Desert". The gallery will be on display over the coming three years.

To further demonstrate its commitment to the arts, the Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel has recently opened an arts and crafts shop in front of the hotel in the Hurghada pedestrian zone, where tourists and locals alike can support the local arts and crafts community with their purchases.
