Christmas Eve a journey back in time at the Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel.

It was not the traditional setting of a White Christmas, but everybody agreed that Christmas celebrations made for a wonderful time at the 5-star deluxe Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel. This year, more than 600 guests from all over the world journeyed back in time and enjoyed special moments at the beautifully decorated Christmas tent, where the Christmas story was read and then unfolded through an explicitly performed play where Josef & Maria, angels, shepherds, kings and even live animals like a donkey, camels and goats, all demonstrated a beautiful spectacle of the birth of Jesus. The air was filled with Christmas spirit and cheer, Christmas carols were sung, and finally Santa Clause made a special appearance, giving each and every child their own little gift.
