

PRESS INFORMATION

Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel starts with Sunshine Guarantee.

The 5-star deluxe Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel, based on the Red Sea in Hurghada/Egypt and part of the renowned German Steigenberger Hotel Group, has introduced its Sunshine Guarantee: Guests will be able to redeem free nights should the sun not shine.

With Hurghada's sunny climate and year-round warm weather, guests to the region should reasonably be able to expect a stay filled with sunshine and good weather. However, should a complete day not be sunny or should it even rain for more than one hour a day, holiday makers to the Steigenberger Al Dau Beach Hotel need not despair. For the hotel is now guaranteeing a free night's stay for every lost day due to bad weather as per a detailed description available in the hotel. A corresponding voucher will be awarded, which customers' may redeem through booking directly with the hotel, be it by telephone/fax, email or via the website at www.steigenbergeraldaubeach.com.

The hotel's management will decide on a daily basis if the criteria of "bad weather" have been met, and if yes, the voucher will be issued to the departing guest at their time of check out. Vouchers will be valid for the period of one year.

Hurghada, August 26, 2009